

Is the Climate Change movement losing its momentum?

Tuesday, 05 June 2018

16:00 – 18:00

Marsilius-Kolleg Lecture Hall

INF 130.1, Heidelberg

Program

- 16:00 Opening
Prof. Dr. Thomas Rausch, Marsilius-Kolleg; Centre for Organismal Studies Heidelberg; Heidelberg University
- 16:10 The role of academia: Linking teaching, research and policy translation
Prof. Dr. Rainer Sauerborn, Heidelberg Institute of Public Health, Heidelberg University
- 16:30 Gaia, capitalism and the climate regime
Prof. Dr. Michael Northcott, Divinity Department, University of Edinburgh and Visiting Professor of the Theology Faculty, University of Heidelberg
- 17:00 The elderly: a population highly vulnerable to heat
Dr. Aditi Bunker, Harvard Global Health Institute
- 17:15 Round table: What is needed to push the climate change agenda locally and globally?
Prof. Dr. Rainer Sauerborn, Heidelberg Institute of Public Health, Heidelberg University
Panelists
Dr. Aditi Bunker, Harvard Global Health Institute
Dr. Lukas Ley, Institute of Anthropology and Heidelberg Center for the Environment, Heidelberg University
Prof. Dr. Michael Northcott, Divinity Department, University of Edinburgh and Visiting Professor of the Theology Faculty, University of Heidelberg
Dr. Valérie Louis, Heidelberg Institute of Public Health, Heidelberg University

